

FINANCIAL SUPPORT ASSOCIATE

Growing Northern VA company seeks a recent college graduate in business or economics to support international lending officers in gathering and analyzing country, market, and industry data used to analyze, evaluate and address the viability and strengths/weaknesses of transactions in excess of $20 million. Associates will perform corporate financial analysis and risk assessment. Successful candidate will have strong financial analysis and writing skills, focus on details, and be able to work independently and as part of a team. Strong communication skills are required to interface with financial decision makers. Applicants must be proficient in MS Word, Outlook, EXCEL and have the ability to learn Moody's Financial Statement Analysis, Lotus Notes and other proprietary software applications. MBA and Foreign languages are a plus. This is a 40-hour per week position, with flexibility between the hours of 7:30 AM and 6:30 PM Monday-Friday. Location is in Washington, D.C. Ideal for students in graduate school. Qualified candidates should submit salary history with resume via fax to (703) 742-3336 or e-mail to fred.zamon@rerfin.com.